LOVE STORY

- PHIL Calm down? All these years you practise your piano, night and day, day and night, and now you give it up to pay for a rich boy to go to law school?
- JENNY He's not rich . . .
- PHIL And why? Because his father has disowned him! And now I can see why!
- JENNY His father disowned him because of me!
- PHIL He didn't like you?
- JENNY He thought I wasn't good enough.
- PHIL And this is why you give up your piano? Because his father doesn't like you? And you expect me to happy?
- JENNY I'm not going to Paris because I love Oliver and I want to be with him.
- PHIL And his law is more important than your piano?
- JENNY When he's a qualified lawyer we'll be rich and we can go to Paris then and I can spend the rest of my life studying!
- PHIL But that won't happen. You can't stop and start! After the few years it won't be in your hands! You know that!
- JENNY Well supposing I love him more than I love playing the goddamn piano?!
- PHIL Now I know you're crazy! You've never loved anything more than that damned piano!
- OLIVER (calmly) Did you hear her?
- (JENNY and PHIL turn to OLIVER, surprised. They'd almost forgotten about him.)
- OLIVER I said did you hear her?!
